Availability is subject to the official tournament schedule and ticket availability, and this experience is not guaranteed.

Destination Information

Katsushika Hokusai – Hokusai (1760–1849) was a celebrated Japanese artist, best known for The Great Wave. A master of ukiyo-e woodblock prints, he captured everyday life, landscapes, and legends with bold colour and movement, leaving a lasting influence on art around the world.

Edo-Tokyo Museum – Reopening in spring 2026, this major museum explores the evolution of Tokyo, from its days as Edo to the city we know today. With detailed models, interactive displays, and striking full-scale reconstructions, it offers a glimpse into how the capital's culture, daily life, and urban landscape have transformed over time.

Day 5: Mount Fuji & the Green Tea Fields of Shizuoka

Meals: B, L, D

Drive to Shizuoka Prefecture, famous for its green tea farms. Visit a tea plantation and enjoy a morning cup of green tea before lunch. This afternoon, head to the Mount Fuji World Heritage Centre to learn about Japan's most iconic mountain.

Continue to the seaside city of Shizuoka and enjoy 360-degree views of Fuji and the Japanese coastline from Nihondaira Yume Terrace. Overnight in Shizuoka.

Nihondaira Yume Terrace – This beautifully designed wooden observatory offers views of Mt. Fuji and the waters of Suruga Bay.

Day 6: Miso Factory – Railway Park – Bullet Train to Kyoto

Meals: B, L, D

Drive to Okazaki to visit a historic miso factory, which has been producing hacho miso for more than five centuries. This style of miso is thicker and purer than other styles, resulting in a rich umami flavour which you can savour at lunch.

Continue to Nagoya's SCMaglev and Railway Park to discover Japan's world-renowned rail heritage. Step inside historic carriages, admire full-scale bullet trains, and see how cutting-edge technology has shaped high-speed travel. Later, experience it for yourself aboard the shinkansen to Kyoto, your home for the next three nights.

Please note that your luggage will be transferred separately to your hotel in Kyoto and arrive later the same day.

Destination Information

Hatcho-style Miso – A traditional dark miso from Okazaki, Aichi, Hatcho miso is aged for years under heavy stones, giving it a bold, earthy flavor. Often used in hearty soups, it's known for its rich, distinctive character.

Nagoya – This coastal city has been an industrial hub for Japan since the Meiji Restoration, and is the home of many automotive and tech companies.

SCMaglev & Railway Park – This fascinating museum traces Japan's railway journey, from its earliest steam locomotives to the next generation of magnetic levitation trains at the SCMaglev and Railway Park in Nagoya. Through beautifully preserved trains and engaging dioramas, see how the nation's famous train networks have evolved from heritage to high-speed future.

Kyoto – Kyoto was the ancient capital of Japan for approximately 1,000 years, until it was moved to Tokyo (then called Edo) by the newly-restored emperor in the late 1860s. Now a popular tourist destination, Kyoto still retains its historic charms and its proudly-maintained ancient temples.

Day 7: Tea Ceremony – Kinkaku-ji – Lunch with a Geisha – Ryoan-ji Meals: B, L, D

Immerse yourself in Kyoto's ancient culture. Begin your day with a morning tea ceremony, observing its historic rituals, then head to the photogenic Golden Pavilion of Kinkaku-ji.

At lunchtime, enjoy a visit from a very special guest: a maiko, or apprentice geisha! Geisha are increasingly hard to spot in Kyoto, so this is a fascinating opportunity for a glimpse into their secretive world.

Continue to Ryoan-ji, a Zen temple famed for its beautiful rock garden, before returning to your hotel.

Destination Information

Maiko – A maiko is an apprentice geisha, recognisable by her vibrant kimono, elaborate hairstyle, and distinctive makeup.

Ryoan-ji – Ryoan-ji Temple is a Zen temple renowned for its garden, which features a dry, sand landscape with large rocks and smooth pebbles. The garden has fifteen stones, cleverly arranged so that one rock is always hidden from view at any angle. Fifteen is considered the number of perfection; just as no individual is perfect, viewers are unable to see all the stones. It is a reminder of one's imperfect and limited perspective.

Kinkaku-ji Temple (Golden Pavilion) – This Buddhist temple sits over a pond in a classical garden of the 'go round' style. The top two floors are covered in pure gold leaf.

Day 8: Kyoto

Meals: B, L, D

Begin the morning in Arashiyama's famous bamboo forest, where towering thickets create a serene atmosphere. Admire the historic Togetsu-kyo Bridge before visiting Tenryu-ji Temple, renowned for its tranquil pond.

Enjoy a temple-style lunch at its Bib Gourmand-listed restaurant. Go on to travel to Nara, Japan's former imperial capital and home to 8 UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Look out for the park's beautiful resident sika deer, who have learned to bow to visitors!

Visit Todai-ji Temple, the world's largest wooden structure. This temple is home to the Daibutsu, an eighth-century bronze Buddha standing almost 15 metres tall. Continue to Isui-en Garden, known for its natural ponds.

Please note that if your visit falls on a Tuesday, you may instead visit the neighbouring Yoshiki-en Gardens or a similar site instead. Opening days can vary throughout the year.

Return to Kyoto this evening.

Destination Information

Arashiyama – This sprawling bamboo grove is one of Kyoto's most photographed spots. The trees here are moso bamboo, which can reach heights of up to 28 metres (92 feet).

Togetsu-kyo Bridge – The wooden Togetsukyo Bridge has been a central landmark in Kyoto's Arashiyama District for over 400 years. The bridge spans the Katsura River in front of Arashiyama Mountain.

Tenryu-ji Temple Restaurant – Located within Tenryu-ji's peaceful temple grounds, Shigetsu serves traditional shojin ryori – seasonal, plant-based Buddhist cuisine. Meals are beautifully arranged and enjoyed in tatami rooms overlooking the garden.

Nara – Nara was Japan's first permanent capital, from 710 until 794, when it was moved to Kyoto. It remains full of historic treasures, including 8 UNESCO World Heritage Sites. It is most famous for its cheeky wild-roaming sika deer.

Todaiji Temple – The UNESCO-listed Todaiji is one of the Seven Great Temples of Japan and is home to the Daibutsu, one of the largest bronze Buddha statues in the world.

Day 9: Via Koko-en Gardens to Hiroshima

Meals: B, L, D

Bid farewell to Kyoto and hop on the bullet train for a 45-minute journey to Himeji. Stop by Himeji Castle for photos, then head to the lovely Koko-en Gardens nearby. Later, board another bullet train and whizz your way an hour to Hiroshima.

Please note: You will need to pack a smaller overnight bag for tonight. Due to the bullet train's limited suitcase capacity, and to ensure your hands-free enjoyment of Himeji, your main luggage will be transferred to Hiroshima separately (max one suitcase per person), arriving at your hotel the following day.

Please note: The visit to Himeji Castle is external only. However, you will have the opportunity to see the interior of another castle in Matsuyama, built in the same period. The castle in Matsuyama is more accessible, and unlike Himeji, contains inside exhibitions.

Destination Information

Himeji – Himeji is the second-largest city of Hyogo Prefecture after Kobe, with approximately half a million inhabitants. It is most famous for its magnificent castle.

Himeji Castle – Widely considered Japan's most magnificent castle for its imposing size and beauty, the well-preserved Himeji Castle is a world heritage listed treasure. Floors are unfurnished.

Koko-en Garden – Koko-en opened in 1992, but its 9 beautiful gardens were built in the style of the Edo period of 1603-1807. Edo period gardens are characterised by their return to extravagance and recreation, in sharp contrast with the minimalism of the Zen-influenced Muromachi period which had come before.

Day 10: Hiroshima Peace Park & Miyajima Island

Meals: B, L, D

Spend the morning in reflection at the poignant Peace Memorial Park and Museum, paying homage to the victims of the 1945 atomic bomb. After lunch, board a ferry to the lovely island of Miyajima, with free time to admire its 'floating' Torii Gate on the edge of the Seto Inland Sea. Return to Hiroshima before dinner.

Enjoy some free time to explore the island's main shopping street. During your free time, you might like to purchase the local speciality - momiji manju, a confectionery shaped like a maple leaf and filled with sweet bean paste, chocolate, matcha or custard. Return to Hiroshima on the mainland before dinner.

You will be on your feet for approximately 4-5 hours today.

Destination Information

Hiroshima – At 8.15 a.m. on 6th August 1945, the US military dropped the world's first nuclear bomb on Hiroshima. The destructive power obliterated nearly everything within a 2km radius, killing more than 70,000 people immediately; a further 20-70,000 subsequently died from injuries or radiation within the next year. Today, the city has risen phoenix-like from the ashes; it is now a powerful international symbol for peace.

Peace Memorial Park and Museum – The Peace Memorial Park and Museum is one of the most prominent features of the city. The trees, lawns and walking paths are in stark contrast to the surrounding downtown area. Before the bomb, the area of what is now the Peace Memorial Park was the political and commercial heart of the city, and this is why it was chosen as the pilot's target. The museum focuses on the events of August 6 and the subsequent outcome for the residents.

Miyajima – Miyajima is a small island off the coast of Hiroshima. Officially named Itsukushima, the island is more commonly referred to as Miyajima. It is famous for its beautiful torii gate, which at high tide seems to float on the water.

Day 11: Across the Inland Sea to Shikoku

Meals: B, L, D

Bid farewell to Honshu and take the ferry from Hiroshima to Shikoku, one of Japan's four main islands. Often overlooked by travellers, mountainous Shikoku rewards those who visit with rich culture and quiet charm.

Arrive in Matsuyama and hop on the cable car to explore its historic hilltop castle before lunch. This afternoon, visit Dogo Onsen Honkan, Japan's oldest hot spring, to soak in its soothing waters before dinner.

Please note that onsen bathing is gender segregated. Clothes, including swimwear/underwear, are not permitted. Unlike many onsens, Dogo Onsen Honkan has no restrictions on tattoos. Guests who do not wish to participate in the onsen bathing are welcome to spend time at leisure in Matsuyama.

Destination Information

Matsuyama – This charming city, nestled between the mountains and the Seto Inland Sea, is the capital of Ehime Prefecture, and while small, is the largest city on Shikoku. It is most famous for its historic hot springs.

Matsuyama Castle – Reached by cable car, this 17th-century hilltop fortress is one of just twelve original castles left in Japan. Its multi-story wooden keep, stone walls, and winding defensive paths are a classic example of Edo-period design.

Dogo Onsen Honkan – This ornate, tiered wooden bathhouse is one of Japan’s oldest and most culturally significant hot springs. The springs themselves are over 3,000 years old, while the wooden bathhouse was built in 1894; it inspired the bathhouse in the famous Studio Ghibli film ‘Spirited Away’.

Day 12: Citrus Farm – Ritsurin Garden – Takamatsu

Meals: B, L, D

Begin the day at Mount Kirozan Observatory, admiring sweeping views of the tiny green islands that stud the Seto Inland Sea. Continue to one of Shikoku's famed citrus farms to pick your own mikan orange and savour the sweet, bright flavour of this local speciality.

Later, enjoy a scenic drive across the island to Ritsurin Garden, a masterpiece of ponds, bridges, and manicured pines. Stroll its serene paths before checking in at your hotel in the port city of Takamatsu.

Please note: If your visit falls on a bank holiday or other closed day, your visit to Ritsurin Garden may be swapped to Day 14, before your drive to Osaka.

Destination Information

Takamatsu – A laid-back port city on Shikoku’s northeastern coastline, known for its waterfront views, mellow pace, and easy access to nearby art islands.

Ritsurin Garden – This beautiful garden was begun in the late 16th century, and finally completed in 1745. It is made up of six lakes and thirteen landscaped hills, and designed for strolling. Each corner brings a new and changing view.

Day 13: Naoshima & Benesse House

Meals: B, L, D

Enjoy a day trip to the little isle of Naoshima, foremost among Japan’s ‘Art Islands’.

A scenic, hour-long ferry ride brings you to Miyanoura Port on the west coast. Visit the island's premier gallery, Benesse House, to explore its blend of indoor exhibits and open-air installations set against sea views. Among its most iconic works is Yayoi Kusama's polka-dot 'Yellow Pumpkin' sculpture, a symbol of modern Japanese art.

After lunch, explore more art around Miyanoura Port, before returning to Takamatsu.

Destination Information

Naoshima – This tiny island in the Inland Sea is famous for its bold, colourful art installations. The towering palms, sandy shores and blue waters create a serene, almost tropical atmosphere.

Benesse Art Site – The famous Benesse House Museum showcases thought-provoking contemporary art in beautiful spaces. Its light-filled gallery, open-air sculptures, and quiet coastal paths offer a peaceful, contemplative art experience.

'Yellow Pumpkin' – Yayoi Kusama's playful, polka-dot Yellow Pumpkin has become an emblem of Naoshima. Set by the water, it captures her signature mix of whimsy, repetition, and striking visual impact. Kusama, born in 1929, is one of Japan's most famous modern artists.

Day 14: Festival Dances, Whirlpools & Osaka

Meals: B, L, D

Journey one hour to Tokushima, on Shikoku's eastern coast, to visit the Awa Odori Festival Museum. Here, learn about the meaning and history of this joyous festival, and even enjoy an energetic live performance by local dancers, who will perform the festival dance in traditional costume.

After lunch, continue to the Naruto Strait to view its famous whirlpools (tide permitting) from a walkway above the swirling currents. Drive across Awaji Island to Osaka, our final stop, and check in at your hotel ahead of this evening's farewell dinner.

Destination Information

Awa Odori Festival Museum – This lively museum tells the story of Tokushima's famous Awa Odori festival, known for its rhythmic dancing and joyful festival spirit, through exhibits and energetic live demonstrations.

Naruto Strait Whirlpools – Tidal currents between Shikoku and Awaji Island create swirling whirlpools just off the coast. Tide permitting, these fascinating currents are visible from the glass bridge above.

Day 15: Depart Osaka

Meals: B

Unless you have booked additional nights in Japan, any time before your flight is at leisure before transferring to the airport for your flight home.

Please note: You may be transferred by shared coach with other passengers who are not part of a Wendy Wu Tour. If you are on a shared coach transfer, you may have to walk for a few minutes to get to your pick-up point. In this case, your guide will distribute transfer tickets in advance.

PLEASE INFORM OUR RESERVATIONS TEAM OF ANY ALLERGIES AND/OR SPECIAL DIETARY REQUIREMENTS AT TIME OF BOOKING.

EXTEND YOUR TRIP: Wendy Wu Tours offers additional night options as well as sightseeing packages such as Nara. Contact your Reservations Consultant in advance of your trip to learn all about our many extension options.

GEMS OF JAPAN & SHIKOKU TRAVEL INFORMATION

VISAS:

Visas are not required for UK/Irish passport holders for entry into Japan for stays of up to 90 days.

INSURANCE:

It is a condition of booking with us that you take out suitable travel insurance. You must provide us with the name of your insurer, policy number and their 24-hour emergency contact number when you book with us or as soon as possible thereafter. These details will be available to your national escort should they be required. Wendy Wu Tours will not be liable for any costs incurred by you due to your failure to take out suitable travel insurance from the date of booking.

EATING IN JAPAN:

Japanese cuisine is delicious, colourful and healthy. Meals are usually served with a bowl of rice and a bowl of miso soup and consist usually of fish, pickled vegetables and meat. All meals (excluding drinks) are included in our Classic group tours from dinner on the day arrival until the morning of departure.

Our schedule of meals is designed so that you can experience the local dishes, their individual flavours as well as different ways they are prepared and cooked throughout Japan. Food is an important element of Japanese culture. It is a time for families and friends to come together and much of family life revolves around the dinner table. Most food is eaten with chopsticks - practising is advised, as Western cutlery is not always available at restaurants.

Breakfast will mostly be buffet-style. Lunches are mostly pre-set options as is custom in many local restaurants. Dinner is often buffet-style, featuring a wide selection of high-quality Japanese and Western dishes. We usually find this style of dining suits the wide and varied tastes of our customers on tour. This will provide greater flexibility and allow you to sample a broad range of local cuisines and dishes.

All beverages will be at your own expense and are readily available. Please note: if you have any dietary requirements, you must inform us before your tour starts, and please be aware that restaurants may not always be able to accommodate these. Gluten-free food may not be as readily available as in your home country.

On some days where lots of sights are covered, dinner times may be early and your tour group may head directly to the restaurant after sightseeing without stopping at your hotel to freshen up.

ACCOMMODATION:

Your accommodation is selected for convenience of location, comfort or character, and can range from a business hotel in one city to a family run guesthouse in a smaller town. In more remote areas, accommodation may be of a lower standard and may not have all Western amenities. In the Fuji area, hotels tend to be more traditional in style and culture. In this area, you may be asked to take your shoes off at the door and store them in a secure locker – this is very traditional in Japanese culture. Please note, double bed requests can be made at the time of booking, but cannot be guaranteed; twin beds are more common in Asia.

Hotels are generally rated as local three to four-star standard, but please note that there is no international classification system for hotels and differences in facilities and quality will exist between your home country and Japan.

Please note that in Japan, hotel rooms and bathrooms are renowned for being small. Standard single rooms are usually smaller than a standard double or twin room, contain one small double bed (or one single bed), and are designed for one person to use.

All group tour hotels have private western bathroom facilities, air conditioning, TV and a telephone. Hotels in Japan often do not have porters and you will be required to carry your own luggage. If you experience any difficulty, please speak to your National Escort/Local Guide. Rest assured that all hotels used by Wendy Wu Tours are regularly inspected by our staff and our partners to ensure that standards meet your needs.

PORTERAGE:

Please be aware that portorage is not included on our tours in Japan. You will therefore need to be able to handle your own luggage within the hotel and when using transportation like trains and coaches.

TRANSFERS:

As we offer our customers a variety of airlines to suit your needs, passengers will arrive/depart in Japan at various times during the day. Depending on the number of customers arriving/ departing on the same flight as yourself, the type of transfer to your hotel/ airport will vary.

You will always be met on arrival by English-speaking staff and transferred all the way to your hotel either by:

- Direct shared bus (shared with other passengers, not just Wendy Wu Tours clients).
- Shared bus plus taxi from the nearest bus stop to the hotel (maximum 5 minutes' walk).
- Chartered coach (if there are more than 8 Wendy Wu Tours passengers arriving at the same time).

On the departure day, all passengers will be met by English-speaking staff at the hotel and transfer by one of the three ways above. For those passengers using a shared bus or shared bus plus taxi to the airport, the guide services end when they drop you off at the bus stop, and you will need to check in at the airport on your own. If you have paid extra for a private transfer, the above does not apply.

You will meet your national escort at the welcome dinner or, if arriving late, the following morning after breakfast at the welcome meeting.

Please ensure your Wendy Wu Tours luggage tag is visible on your suitcase/hand luggage, as this may also assist your guide in identifying you. If at any stage you are unable to locate your representative, please contact our Japan ground operator on the number included in your final documents.

TRANSPORT:

Coaches: Coaches with air conditioning are used on our group tours for city sightseeing, short excursions to the countryside and longer transfers where necessary. Roads in Japan are extremely well-maintained and are comparatively smooth compared with the rest of Asia. Coaches and mini buses do not have onboard toilet facilities; however frequent bathroom stops are made for passengers' comfort.

Bullet trains: Second-class reserved seats are booked for our groups on bullet trains; there will be toilet facilities on board. Due to the limited space on bullet trains, a separate luggage transfer service will be arranged for all suitcases (1 case per person). You will need to pack a separate overnight bag to carry on the train (excluding between Kyoto and Nagoya, when your luggage will arrive the same day.) Your guide will indicate when you will need to prepare for this throughout your tour.

DEVELOPMENT IN JAPAN:

Japan is a developed country and as such matches the West in modernity and technological advances. Japan is an extremely safe country and takes great responsibility in maintaining high safety standards.

GROUP SIZE:

Most of our groups consist of minimum 10 travellers and will be accompanied by a national escort. There will usually be no more than 28 travellers in each group, although you may encounter other Wendy Wu tour groups while you are travelling.

All our departures are guaranteed to operate with a minimum of 8 travellers booked (unless cancelled due to factors beyond our control). A national escort will accompany each group of 10 or more. However, at our discretion, we may operate departures with a smaller group size as we try to operate advertised departures wherever it is viable to do so.

TIPPING POLICY:

Although tipping in Japan is not customary or expected, if you feel you have received an excellent service, please feel free to tip your guide at your discretion. Traditionally, the polite method of gifting money in Japan is to use an envelope (available at convenience stores or occasionally hotel receptions); however, this is not required.

CULTURAL DIFFERENCES:

Japanese society and culture are built on intricate social etiquette and customs. As foreigners, we are not expected to be knowledgeable about all etiquette, but it will make your time in Japan more enjoyable if you are respectful of local customs.

Some examples of scenarios you may encounter include removing your shoes and hats when entering a temple or house (and some restaurants). You may be supplied with slippers at some places, but please come prepared with plenty of spare socks, and shoes that are easy to take off for the fairly regular occasions when they must be removed. Socks with grip are useful at sites like castles with steep wooden steps.

In shops, there is a small coin tray at the till. This is where you should place your money and collect any change, rather than handing it directly to the assistant. If the card machine is behind the desk, do the same with your card.

Shaking hands is not typical in Japan. Instead, stand and bow slightly (about 15 degrees) from the waist. Do not put your hands together prayer-style as in some other Asian countries.

Two essential phrases: Please = Kudasai. Thank you: Arigatou or Arigatou gozaimasu.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS:

If you are travelling within Japanese public holidays, please note that celebrations can last a couple of days. During these times some businesses will be closed. Coach and train travel may also be affected. Tourist attractions will be open; but may be crowded. Showa Day is on 29th April every year, which will start Golden Week which then runs from 29th April – 5th May, Constitution Memorial Day is on 3rd May, and Emperor's Birthday is on 23rd February every year.

SOUVENIRS:

We want to be able to give you an opportunity to buy souvenirs, so we include some stops at museums or exhibitions which demonstrate a craft or product unique to that region with pieces available to buy. We understand that souvenir hunting is not for everyone, so we aim to take you to places which hold local interest. We trust you will enjoy these opportunities to learn about local arts and crafts and understand their historical and cultural importance.

LUGGAGE:

All travellers are limited to two items of luggage each: a suitcase with a maximum weight of 20kg and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum weight of five kilograms. It is essential that your luggage is lockable.

PERSONAL EXPENSES AND OPTIONAL TOURING:

Personal Expenses – You will need to take some extra money to cover drinks, laundry and souvenirs, plus any additional sightseeing that may be offered to you.

It is highly recommended that extra care and attention is paid when exchanging money when travelling to cities outside of Tokyo. We suggest exchanging your money before travelling to smaller towns, as exchange facilities can be very limited. Your National Escort will remind you to do this before departure.

CLIMBING STEPS:

Sightseeing at nearly all the palaces, fortresses and some temples involves climbing quite a number of steps. These castles were built to provide defence against potential invaders, so nearly all of them stand on top of a hill, while the interiors have layers of narrow hallways and steps to slow down the advance of enemies once they were inside. The polished wooden steps tend to be quite steep, narrow, uneven and sometimes without handrails.

Buddhist temples or pagodas also tend to be built at an elevation, as this is the most auspicious position according to ancient beliefs. This means you sometimes need to walk from the bus park to the entrance, and/or need to climb some steps inside.

People with knee or hip injuries, who have poor balance, or are otherwise unable to complete these activities independently, should consider the suitability of this itinerary carefully.

VACCINATIONS AND YOUR HEALTH:

Wendy Wu Tours does not give specific health advice, but we do recommend you see your doctor at least six weeks prior to travel for advice and to allow time for any necessary vaccinations.

Please remember to take your itinerary with you.

AFTER YOUR BOOKING:

Once you have booked with Wendy Wu Tours, you will receive a confirmation invoice along with a link to our website where you can find your visa information (if applicable) and other important information. Your final documentation pack will be sent to you approximately 2 weeks prior to departure.
