WELCOME TO THE GALAPÁGOS ISLANDS

A volcanic archipelago, 600 miles off Ecuador's Pacific coast, the Galápagos Islands have been a beacon for scientists, naturalists and travellers alike for centuries. With a biodiversity that earned them a place on the UNESCO World Heritage list, this remote collection of 127 islands, islets and rocks, may be more stark and rugged than tropical paradise, but they do offer one of the world's great wildlife adventures.

The islands played a pivotal role in inspiring Charles Darwin and his Theory of Evolution; here you can play an explorer, following in his footsteps, seeing the very same raw nature as in 1835 – green slopes dotted with huge giant tortoises, beaches where marine iguanas bask and penguins waddle, and a sky full of Darwin's finches and blue-footed boobies.

The fact that, of the 4,000 species found on the islands, 40% of them are found nowhere else on earth, is only part of the story. What makes your time here so utterly unique is that the wildlife has no fear of people, meaning you can get up close to curious sea lions and inquisitive birdlife.

With so many wonders to explore, if the Galápagos Islands aren't near the top of your bucket list, they really should be.

When to Visit

Visiting the Galápagos is undoubtedly an unforgettable experience, but travelling at the perfect time makes it even better! Read on to find out what is happening, when.

The Galápagos sits right on the Equator, making it a year-round destination with 12 hours of light a day. There are, however, two distinct seasons.

December to May is the warm season, with temperatures between 30 and 34°C, minimal rainfall and sea temperatures up to 28°C, ideal for snorkelling. At this time, land birds begin to nest, sea turtles arrive to lay eggs, giant tortoise eggs hatch and it's mating followed by egg laying season for marine iguanas.

After the arrival of the Humboldt Current, June to November is the cooler season. At this time, you may get stronger winds and cooler temperatures but will likely be sharing the experience with fewer other visitors. Expect giant tortoises to migrate down to the lowlands to nest, sea lion pupping to peak, humpback whales to arrive and to see mischievous juvenile penguins and sea lions along the shoreline.

Geography

When the geography is just as fascinating as the things that call these islands home, you know you're in for an epic adventure...

Formed by millennia of volcanic eruptions (some of which are still occurring today) and the seismic activity of the Nazca tectonic plate, there are 13 main islands, 6 smaller islands and over 100 islets in the Galápagos chain. The islands' landscapes are otherworldly to look at, featuring volcanic cones and jagged lava fields as well as lush, green highlands.

Each island has its own unique features. Santa Cruz, Isabela and San Cristóbal are the three main inhabited islands. On Santa Cruz, you'll find abundant giant tortoises and the unmissable Charles Darwin Research Station; it is also the main tourist hub with hotels and restaurants. San Cristóbal is home to the provincial capital, with sea lions on town beaches and great snorkelling spots.

The uninhabited islands are home to volcanic panoramas, towering cactus forests, deep calderas, sinkholes, dramatic coves and sheer cliffs. Pinnacle Rock off Bartolomé is one of the Galapagos' most recognisable and photogenic landmarks, a volcanic tuff cone rising above a golden sand beach and deep blue water.

Wildlife

The Galápagos Islands are best known for their unique biodiversity, with many iconic species calling them home. Known for their curiosity and charismatic shenanigans, here are some of the top species to spot.

Iguanas – you'll spot two species of iguanas on the Galápagos– land and marine. Marine iguanas are particularly fascinating; once land iguanas, they evolved to be water-based, one of the Galápagos' most astonishing adaptations. They are wide-spread across the archipelago.

Giant Tortoises – The Galápagos' emblematic creature, it's believed the islands were named after these slow-moving-slow-chewing behemoths! No visit is complete without spotting them in the highlands of Santa Cruz, in Urbina Bay or the breeding centres on San Cristóbal.

Frigate birds – both 'great' and 'magnificent' frigate birds can be found on the Galápagos. They are best known for the males' red gular sacks, impressively bright against their black plumage. See their nesting colonies on San Cristóbal, Española, and Genovesa islands.

Boobies – three species of booby nest in the Galápagos – Nazca, red-footed and blue-footed. Named from the Spanish word bobo (clown) they are beloved for their clumsiness on land but power and grace in the sky, as well as the unique characters of each species.

Penguins – the only penguins on the equator, Galápagos penguins are the rarest, and second smallest, penguin species. Nesting in lava tubes and crevices they can raise up to three sets of hatchlings a year, particularly when food is abundant.

Sea Lions – the smallest species of sea lion, Galápagos sea lions live throughout the islands. They are known for being the islands' most inquisitive creatures and often approach visitors on land or in the sea for a good look. Pups can be seen most of the year.

How to Explore

To discover the unique and extraordinary diversity of the Galápagos Islands is, for most, a truly once-in-a-lifetime adventure.

Exploring here, no two days are the same – each island offers different species or landscapes – and you'll always be with an expert naturalist guide, in a group no bigger than 16, which makes for a richer experience and helps protect this fragile ecosystem. Strict controls on numbers (100 people per site) mean it will never feel crowded.

Whichever way you explore, expect close encounters with nature – snorkelling with sea lions, kayaking past cliff-top colonies, or walking with a naturalist guide. And with direct flights linking Ecuador to destinations across Latin America, the Galápagos can be added to a mainland Ecuador trip, or easily combined with Peru, Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Panama or Costa Rica.

But what is the best way to really explore this remote archipelago? Read on for our top tips...

Cruise v Land

Cruise

On a Galápagos cruise, you get to wake up every day to a new island to explore, plus you'll have access to some of the more remote islands of the archipelago, a benefit of sea-based touring.

When it comes to choosing a Galápagos cruise there are things to consider. Vessels can range from small catamarans hosting 16 passengers to larger yachts up to 100 passengers. While small boats offer a more intimate experience, larger ships tend to be more stable at sea and offer more facilities. Then you have the length of itinerary. These range from four days/three nights to eight days/seven nights, along a range of different routes. You could even do two itineraries back-to-back – the longer you spend onboard, the further you get to explore.

While there are early mornings involved, it will mean being able to fit in two excursions (or more) a day, venturing to islands by panga for a mix of wet (disembarking in shallow water) and dry landings.

Land

Land-based Galápagos adventures offer the benefit of a more relaxed pace, the comfort and space of a hotel and the literal stability of dry land!

There is more freedom in the itinerary – you can build your own, adding in as much exploration and relaxation as you like – while also being able to mix with local communities. You also have the choice to stay on one island or hop between two or three, discovering all that each of them has to offer, then taking excursions from there. Excursions on a land-based itinerary are often two per day, returning for lunch, or can be a full day out exploring with lunch on the move.

Combining cruise and land-based can give you the best of both worlds. Explore a few more remote islands by boat and then base yourself on one of the main islands to discover it more in-depth and take boat trips to smaller neighbouring islands and islets.

San José, Costa Rica

Costa Rica's capital has a tropical wet and dry climate. While temperatures vary little year-round, sticking at around 28° to 30° on average, there are marked wet and dry seasons with the wettest months being September and October.

Buenos Aires, Argentina

Argentina's capital boasts a temperate climate with four distinct seasons, although weather can be variable thanks to the city's location on the Pampas. Spring and autumn here are mild, summers hot and humid while winter sees mild days and cold nights.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

In Rio, coastal breezes moderate the temperature which in the hot and humid summers average 30°, and in the warm, sunny winters average 25°. There are sustained periods of often heavy rain between December and March.

San Pedro de Atacama, Chile

With its high desert climate, San Pedro is dry and mild year-round, with very little rainfall. Daytime temperatures reach 25–30°C in summer and 18–25°C in winter, while night-time temperatures routinely drop to 0°C or lower.

Cusco, Peru

Cusco is generally dry and temperate with two distinct seasons – winter, which is May to September, and summer, from October to April. The winter months see plenty of sunshine with occasional night-time freezes while summer is warm and wet.

Mexico City, Mexico

Thanks to its high altitude, Mexico City enjoys a mild, spring-like climate year-round. The dry season (November to April) brings warm, sunny days and cool evenings, while summer (May to October) is warmer with frequent afternoon showers. Evenings are cool throughout the year, particularly during the winter months.

Puerto Natales, Chile

Puerto Natales has an oceanic climate with cool, short summers and chilly, wet winters. It also holds the title of place with the most rainy days in Chile! Temperatures can be around 18° in high summer and 7° in high winter.

Galapagos Islands, Ecuador

While the Galapagos Islands are on the Equator, their isolated position in the Pacific means their climate is not tropical. Temperatures vary little from between 21° and 30° but there is a warm season, typically from December to June and a dry season, between July to November.

Your questions answered

A selection of our most frequently asked questions.

BEFORE YOU TRAVEL

Q. How soon after making our booking will we receive confirmation?

A. Once we have received your deposit payment, we will send you a confirmation invoice within 24 hours.

Q. Do you send us information about the destinations we will visit?

A. It is essential that you read the relevant Detailed Itinerary before booking, which you can find on wendywutours.co.uk, or we can arrange for one to be sent to you. If there are any particular challenges, such as the length of time spent on your feet, journey times or accommodation standards, they will be explained in these concise trip notes. Two weeks before you travel, you will receive a detailed day-by-day itinerary, a travel guide as well as a phrasebook with your final documents.

Q. Will I know which hotels I will be staying in before I go?

A. Hotel details will be sent with your final documents around two weeks prior to departure. Note that these may be subject to change. Hotels generally range from 3-4 stars. In more remote areas, accommodation may be of a lower standard and may not have all western amenities. Rest assured that all hotels used by Wendy Wu Tours are regularly inspected by our partners to ensure that standards meet your needs. If you require an early check-in or late check-out for your arrival and departure days, please contact us.

Q. Do I need a visa?

A. Visas are currently not required in any Latin American countries for holders of UK British Citizen passports. If you do require a visa this will need to be arranged yourself at your own expense. You will need a minimum of 12 months validity from your return date on your passport to travel. Keep up to date with the latest visa requirements at fco.gov.uk.

We have a detailed visa section located on our website with comprehensive instructions on how to obtain a visa for the country you are visiting, this information can be found here <https://www.wendywutours.co.uk/help-and-advice/passports-and-visas/>

Q. Do I need travel insurance?

A. Your protection and safety are our main priority. That's why having adequate travel insurance is a condition of booking with us for all the destinations you plan to travel to.

Q. What vaccinations do I need?

A. Vaccination requirements often change, therefore for up to date information please refer to <https://travelhealthpro.org.uk> and always seek your doctor's advice.

Q. How fit do I need to be?

A. Our group tours are graded on each page with a Physical Rating to reflect the level of fitness required. The specific reasons for a particular grading for each tour are clearly described in the Detailed Itinerary which you can find on our website. Please contact us if you require any advice. Our range of Private tours is more flexible and may better cater for individual needs. Ask us for more details.

Q. What size are your tour groups?

A. The maximum group size on our Latin America Classic tours is between 18 and 28, and Go Beyond tours is a maximum of 18 passengers. Where available, on our group tours we operate a seat-and-a-half policy on our coaches, allowing you to travel in comfort.

Q. Do you run guaranteed departures?

A. Group tours are guaranteed to run subject to a minimum of 10 passengers. A National Escort will accompany each group of 10 or more. We will endeavour to run groups of a smaller size if viable to do so.

Q. As a single traveller, will I have to pay a single supplement?

A. We offer several options for single travellers joining our tours. The first is to book onto one of our Solo Departures, which are reserved exclusively for solo travellers and have single occupancy of a double room built into the tour price (plus free access to an airport lounge and a welcome cocktail on arrival) or, if you prefer, you can pay the single room supplement on a regular departure and have a private room reserved for you. Another possibility is to choose our 'Happy to Share' option where, if we can find you a share partner of the same gender, your Single Supplement will be removed from your booking. We regret that Happy to Share requests cannot be accepted within 75 days of departure.

Q. What is the maximum luggage allowance on your tours?

A. Your main suitcase or backpack must not exceed 20kg and your hand luggage must not exceed 5kg as this is the maximum allowance on internal flights and trains.

On any of our tours to Peru, you will visit Machu Picchu. Please note that hand luggage on board the train to the citadel should not exceed 5kgs and measure no more than 40 cm x 35 cm x 20 cm.

Q. Will my luggage be carried for me?

A. Luggage transfers from coach to hotel lobby are included on all group tours. Train station platforms are accessible via lifts and escalators, though you will need to carry your bags off and on trains. Your National Escort will assist you where possible.

Q. What currency should I take?

A. We recommend you take the local currency and a credit/debit card. If travelling to more than one country it may also be advisable to bring some US dollars to exchange locally. We do not recommend travellers cheques. Please ensure you have sufficient funds to pay for personal expenses such as drinks, snacks, souvenirs and optional extras.

Q. When is the best time to travel?

A. Our group tour dates are based on the best time to travel in each destination, however as Latin America is such a large and varied continent there will be drastic differences between and even within countries, sometimes on the same tour. See individual tour pages and Detailed Itinerary in this brochure for further information about the seasons and climate in each destination.

Q. Do you allow children on your tours?

A. We allow children 12 years and over on most of our group tours. Alternatively, private tours offer greater flexibility whilst on tour and are suitable for any age group. Any of our tours can be enjoyed as a private tour.

Q. Will I be travelling with passengers from other countries?

A. Our passengers are mainly from the UK, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand. Occasionally we are joined by English speaking passengers from other countries.

WHILE ON TOUR

Q. What sort of vehicles do you use?

A. We use a variety of transportation to operate your itinerary at the best pace and to give you an authentic travel experience so you are not always 'removed' from the locals. The same advice applies to all modes of transport. Carry all valuables with you at all times – a money belt is recommended – and make sure a passenger remains with your belongings at all times. Keep a lock on your main luggage.

Domestic Flights We use a number of different domestic carriers within Latin America. Planes are very similar to what you would travel on at home with allocated seats. Depending on flight duration meals may/may not be provided. Group members may not necessarily be seated together. The flight schedule of domestic airlines changes frequently, hence all domestic flights that appear in your itinerary are subject to change. Please ensure that all valuables and any medications you may need for the rest of the day are carried in your hand luggage. The luggage limit is 20kg per passenger, and bags must be locked. Airlines currently do not allow liquids (alcohol, spirits, wine, water, perfume etc) or sharp objects to be carried onboard the aircraft in hand luggage and these will be confiscated. Wendy Wu Tours issues most domestic flight tickets in Latin America, and tickets will be handled by your national escort and given to each passenger just prior to your flight.

Coaches Our coaches are comfortable, air-conditioned vehicles. It is recommended that where seatbelts are available customers must use them and remain seated at all times whilst the vehicle is moving. Wendy Wu Tours cannot guarantee that vehicles will be fitted with operable seatbelts. There will also be some instances where smaller vehicles such as jeeps are used to access certain areas. If this is the case this will be stated in your itinerary.

Trains Panoramic Peru, Andes to Atacama, Treasures of South America and Ultimate South America tours will include an exciting train journey through the mountains. This will be aboard either the Vistadome train or the Titicaca train. These are comfortable trains that travel through incredible landscapes and will be a real highlight of your trip. Your guide will try to organise the whole group to be seated in the same carriage but during busy periods of travel this may not be possible.

Boats Some itineraries include time spent touring by boat. To take part in any boat ride, you should be of average mobility and be able to climb on and off the vessels unaided. You should also be able to disembark onto makeshift docks without handrails, or onto uneven riverbanks.

Q. Is there a dress code on your tours?

A. Our dress code is very relaxed; however, please note that clothing covering the arms and legs is more appropriate when visiting religious buildings and smart casual clothes are recommended for evenings. Please see our South America Travel Guide for a full suggested packing list, which can be found at www.wendywutours.co.uk/help-and-advice/faqs/

Q. Are meals included?

A. All meals (excluding beverages) are included in our group tours except where stated. Please note that in remote areas, meals may be simple and choices limited.

Meals included in Private tours are stated in the itinerary and include several free evenings, offering flexibility for those who wish to explore local restaurants. If you book a fully inclusive Classic Tour your first meal will be dinner on the day of arrival and will end with breakfast on the normal day of departure. Any additional meals will be at your own expense and no refund will be made for any meals missed. You will sample a range of local cuisine with occasional western meals, and meals are usually taken at local restaurants.

Q. Are there shopping opportunities on your tours?

A. There will be an array of shopping opportunities for those who love to seek out a bargain. We encourage all passengers to enjoy their local shopping expeditions but to take care and be wise when purchasing.

Q. Can special requests be arranged?

A. If you have any special requests such as dietary requirements, or if you wish to celebrate an event, please notify us at the time of booking and we will do everything possible to ensure your requests are met. Please note that special requests cannot be guaranteed.

Q. What hours of the day do your tours operate?

A. They generally start about 8am and end shortly after your evening meal. Occasionally earlier starts are required to meet flight departures or to visit sights at the best time of day.

Q. How do standards abroad compare with the UK?

A. We will do our best to ensure that your holiday is safe and trouble free and we are continually working with our local partners to maintain and improve health and safety standards. Travelling abroad involves new places and new experiences and sometimes this means different safety and hygiene standards to those we are used to in the UK. We therefore ask that you take care; pay attention at all times and use your common sense. You are also requested to refer to notices and follow advice from your National Escort or local guide.

Q. Is tap water safe to drink?

A. We strongly recommend only drinking bottled water throughout your trip.

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Health & Safety

Your health, safety and well-being on holiday are of paramount importance to us. Wendy Wu Tours is a fully insured and bonded tour operator with comprehensive public liability cover. Working closely with an independent health and safety organisation, our local partners carry out health and safety checks on accommodation, transport and excursions; and works with our destination partners and suppliers towards improving health and safety standards throughout the regions in which we operate. All travellers should be aware that safety standards vary across the different regions we visit and may not match the standards we enjoy in the UK and Ireland. In the unlikely event of a problem or emergency on tour, Wendy Wu Tours has a Crisis Management process in place to support all of our customers. We also have a dedicated 24 hour emergency support number.

Q. How does the tipping system work on your tours?

A. Tipping is expected Latin America. However this can often lead to awkwardness in knowing when it is appropriate to tip and how much, as well as ensuring you have a suitable amount of change available at the time. For your convenience, and based on many years of experience, Wendy Wu Tours operates a kitty system on our group tours so your National Escort will look after this aspect of your trip for you. It also ensures that the amounts paid are reasonable for you but still fair for the local people. The amount is stated on each group tour page (and will be advised again in your final documents).

Any additional tipping on any of our tours is welcomed at your discretion. Please feel free to tip restaurant staff, porters, or local guides if they performed a special service for you. For tours with fewer than 10 passengers, tipping will be slightly higher than stated on the group tour pages.

Travelling Responsibly

For the last 25 years we've been taking groups of travellers to unique and spectacular places, and know full well how impactful, inspiring and horizon-broadening exploring the world can be. Over the years we have been building as many mutually beneficial, sustainable and responsible relationships as possible in the destinations that we visit, so they too are able to thrive.

Local Economic Empowerment

We believe travel should positively benefit the communities we visit. That's why we prioritise locally-owned restaurants, hotels, and experiences that support local businesses and create sustainable livelihoods. When traveling with us, you help empower local artisans, entrepreneurs, guides, drivers and so many others, ensuring that tourism leaves a positive, lasting impact.

Respectful Cultural Experiences

We are committed to fostering meaningful, authentic, and respectful interactions with the communities we visit. Our tours are designed to celebrate local traditions, honour cultural heritage, and support experiences led by local experts. We encourage travellers to engage with an open mind, follow local customs, and contribute to the preservation of cultural identity in a responsible way.

Lower Impact Travel

We are reducing our environmental impact by building more rail journeys into our itineraries, and promoting low-season travel. Trains offer a greener alternative to flying, lowering carbon emissions while providing a more immersive travel experience. By promoting more departures in the low season, we also help ease pressure on popular destinations, support local economies year-round, and create a more sustainable way to explore the world.

Sustainable Tourism Education

We believe responsible travel starts with awareness. That's why we provide our travellers with practical tips on reducing their environmental impact and supporting communities in a meaningful way. Through pre-departure resources and on-tour guidance, we empower our travellers to make informed, sustainable choices that help protect the destinations we visit for future generations.

Animal Welfare Matters

Some of the world's most memorable travel experiences involve wildlife and nature. We believe travel should foster understanding and appreciation of the natural world, local cultures and different ways of life, while contributing positively to the environments and communities we visit. That is why we are committed to promoting responsible animal experiences with consideration for respect, care and welfare, and align with best practice standards.

Essential Booking Information

Before you book with Wendy Wu Tours, please take a moment to read this summary along with the Detailed Tour Itinerary for your tour and our full Booking Conditions (available on our website). When you book with us it's on the understanding that you've read and understood these.

Your Financial Protection

Your holiday is in safe hands. For flight-based holidays, we hold an ATOL licence (No. 6639), issued by the Civil Aviation Authority, meaning your money is protected if anything goes wrong. You'll receive an ATOL Certificate when you book, clearly outlining exactly what's covered.

For non-flight package holidays, we're a proud member of ABTA (No. W7994), providing further peace of mind through a bond held by ABTA The Travel Association.

Book With Confidence

Your holiday also falls under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018, meaning we are fully responsible for the proper performance of your entire package. In the unlikely event of insolvency, your payments are protected and – where transport is included – your safe return home is guaranteed.

Book with confidence. Your holiday is protected every step of the way.

Payment

To secure your booking, we ask for a non-refundable deposit of £350 per person. The remaining balance is due at least 75 days before departure. In some cases (for example flight upgrades) a higher deposit may be needed.

Travel Documents

For most destinations, you'll need a passport with at least 6 months' validity and two blank pages. While we assist and cover the cost of pre-arranged travel visas for UK and Irish passport holders (unless otherwise specified), you are ultimately responsible for ensuring you have the correct passport and visas to travel.

Health & Travel Insurance

Please arrange any recommended vaccinations in good time before your trip. You'll also need suitable travel insurance in place before booking.

Changing Your Booking

If you need to make changes before paying your balance, there's a £50 admin fee plus any additional costs incurred, such as non-refundable flights or cruise deposits.

Cancelling Your Booking

If you need to cancel, the following charges usually apply:

- 75+ days before departure: loss of deposit
- 42–74 days: 30%
- 28–41 days: 60%
- 15–27 days: 90%
- 14 days or less: 100%

Some parts of your trip may be non-refundable – if this is the case, we will explain it to you when you book.

If We Need to Change Your Holiday

Occasionally, we may need to make changes to your holiday. If this happens, we'll let you know as soon as possible. If it's a major change, you can choose a different holiday or receive a full refund.

Special Requests

If you have any special requirements (such as dietary needs), please let us know before booking. We'll do our best to accommodate them, though we can't guarantee every request.

Fitness & Medical Conditions

Each tour has a 'physical rating' and the activity levels are described in the tour's Detailed Tour Itinerary. It is your responsibility to check these carefully and be sure you can participate without adverse effect on the group.
